3rd Edition of LIFFI 2018

The 3rd edition of the Lonavala International Film Festival India 2018 (LIFFI) will be held from September 7 to 9. The festival will start with Bimal Roy's epic Sujata and Sridhar Rangayan's Evening Shadows followed by 16 films, three master classes and interactive seminars. The festival will also pay tribute to ace director Bimal Roy and his contribution to Indian cinema. Six of his films will be showcased along with a short documentary on the filmmaker himself. This section will be curated by his daughter Rinki Roy Bhattacharya.

The festival will also screen classics like Devdas, Bandini and Madhumati along with Marathi movies like Nude, Kachcha Limboo and Dr. Rakhmabai. Films like Iqbal, Joggers Park, Kashmakash, The Genius – Ramanujan, and the first Ukrainian English animation film The Stolen Princess will also be screened. Director Ananth Mahadevan will conduct an interactive session. Director and producer Viveck Vaswani will conduct a workshop with media students.
