Enjoy an online film fest

The 6th Lonavala International Film Festival India (LIFFI) 2021 will be held online September 24-26, October 1-3 and October 8-10. The festival, which will run over three weekends, will pay special tribute to ace filmmaker Shakti Samanta and will screen some of his memorable films. The director of the festival is Madhav Todi and the festival curator is Viveck Vaswani. Well-known film personalities will take part in the pre-screening discussions, which will highlight the reasons why certain films have become classics. One film will be streamed every day and, in total, nine films will be screened. You can watch the films and participate in the panel discussions from home by simply downloading the Plexigo app. Sign up on www.liffi.in. facebook for more information.
